CONSENT TO USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

This form is an agreement between you, _____, and me, Patty Yule, LPCC. When I use the word "you" below, it can mean you or your child, relative, or other person if you have written their name here: _____.

When I examine, test, diagnose, treat, or refer you, I will be collecting what the law calls Protected Healthcare Information (PHI) about you. I need to use this information here to decide on what treatment is best for you and to provide any treatment to you. I may also share this information with others to arrange payment for your treatment or for other business or government functions.

By signing this form you are agreeing to let me use your information here and share it with the others as mentioned above. The Notice of Privacy Practices explains in more detail your rights and how I can use and share your information. Please read this before you sign this consent form.

If you do not sign this consent for agreeing to what is in our Notice of Privacy Practices I cannot treat you.

In the future, I may change how we use and share your information and so may change my Notice of Privacy Practices. If I do change it, you will be notified, and can get an updated copy from me.

If you are concerned about some of your information, you have the right to ask me to not use or share some of your information for treatment, payment or administrative purposes. You will have to tell me what you want in writing. Although I will try to respect your wishes, I am not required to agree to these limitations. However, if I do agree, I will do as you asked.

After you have signed this consent, you have the right to revoke it in writing. I will comply with your wishes about using or sharing your information from that time on, but I may already have used or shared some of your information and cannot change that.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I Disclosure for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

I may use or disclose your protected health information (PHI), for certain treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes without your authorization. In certain circumstances I can only do so when the person or business requesting your PHI gives me a written request that includes certain promises regarding protecting the confidentiality of your PHI. To help clarify these terms, here are some definitions:

"PHI" refers to information in your health record that could identify you.

"Treatment and Payment Operations"

--Treatment is when I or another healthcare provider diagnoses or treats you. An example of treatment would be when I consult with another healthcare provider, such as your family physician or another therapist regarding your treatment.

--Payment is when I obtain reimbursement for your healthcare. Examples of payment are when I disclose your PHI to your health insurer to obtain reimbursement for your healthcare or to determine eligibility or coverage.

--Health Care Operations is when I disclose your PHI to your health care service plan (for example your health insurer), or to your other health care providers contracting with your plan.

- "Use" applies only to activities within my office such as sharing, employing, applying, utilizing examining, and analyzing information that identifies you.
- "Disclosure" applies to activities outside of my office, such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.

"Authorization" means written permission for specific uses or disclosures.

II. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

I may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, and health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. In those instances when I am asked for information for purposes outside of treatment and payment operations, I will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. I will also need to obtain an authorization before releasing your psychotherapy notes. "Psychotherapy notes" are notes I have made about our conversations during a private, group, joint, or family counseling session, which I have kept separate from the rest of your medical record. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than PHI.

You may revoke or modify all such authorizations (of PHI or psychotherapy notes) at any time; however, the revocation or modification is not effective until I receive it.

111. Uses and Disclosure with Neither Consent nor Authorization

I may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

- Child Abuse: Whenever I, in my professional capacity, have knowledge of or observe a child I know or reasonably suspect has been the victim of child abuse or neglect, I must immediately report such to a police department or sheriff's department, county probation department, or county welfare department (Child Protective Services). Also, if I have knowledge or reasonably suspect that mental suffering has been inflicted upon a child or that his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way, I may report such to the above agencies.
- Adult and Domestic Abuse: If I, in my professional capacity, have observed or have knowledge of an incident that reasonably appears to be physical abuse, abandonment, abduction, isolation, financial abuse or neglect of an elder or dependent adult, or if I am told by an elder or dependent adult that he or she has experienced these or if I reasonably suspect such, I must report the known or suspected abuse immediately to the local ombudsman or the local law enforcement agency.

I do not have to report such an incident if:

I have been told by an elder or dependent adult that he or she has experienced behavior constituting physical abuse, abandonment, abduction, isolation, financial abuse or neglect;

2. I am not aware of any independent evidence that corroborates the statement that the abuse has occurred;
 3. the elder or dependent adult has been diagnosed with a mental illness or dementia, or is the subject of a court-ordered conservatorship because of a mental illness or dementia; and
 4. in the exercise of clinical judgment, I reasonably believe that the abuse did not occur.
- Health Oversight: If a complaint is filed against me with the California Board of Behavioral Sciences, the Board has the authority to subpoena confidential mental health information from me relevant to that complaint.
 - Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made about the professional services that I have provided you, I must not release your information without 1) your written authorization or the authorization of your attorney or personal representative; 2) a court order; or 3) a subpoena duces tecum (a subpoena to produce records) where the party seeking your records provides me with a showing that you or your attorney have been served with a copy of the subpoena, affidavit and the appropriate notice, and you have not notified me that you are bringing a motion into the court to quash (block) or modify the subpoena. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. I will inform you in advance if this is the case.
 - Serious Threat to Health or Safety: If you communicate to me a serious threat of physical violence against an identifiable victim, I must make reasonable efforts to communicate that information to the potential victim and the police. If I have reasonable cause to believe that you are in such a condition as to be dangerous to yourself or others, I may release relevant information as necessary to prevent the threatened danger.

- Worker's Compensation; If you file a worker's compensation claim, I must furnish a report to your employer, incorporating my findings about your injury and treatment, within five working days from the date of your initial examination, and at subsequent intervals as may be required by the administrative director of the Worker's Compensation Commission in order to determine your eligibility for worker's compensation.

IV. Patient's Rights and Therapist's Duties Patient's

Rights:

- Right to Request Restrictions- You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information about you. However, I am not required to agree to a restriction you request.
- Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means and at Alternative Locations- You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations, (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are seeing me, Upon your request, I will send your bills or correspondence to another address.)

Right to Inspect and copy- You have the right to inspect or obtain a copy (or both) of PHI in my mental health and billing records used to make decisions about you for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record, I may deny your access to PHI under certain circumstances, but in some cases you may have this decision reviewed. On your request, I will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.

- Right to Amend- You have the right to request an amendment of the PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. I may deny your request. On your request, I will discuss with you the details of the amendment process.
- Right to an Accounting- You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI for which you have neither provided consent nor authorization (as described in Section III of this Notice). On your request, I will discuss with you the details of the accounting process.

Right to a Paper Copy- You have the right to obtain a paper copy of the notice from me upon request, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.

Therapists' Duties:

I am required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with a notice of my legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI.

- I reserve the right to change the privacy policies and practices described in this notice. Unless I notify you of such changes however, I am required to abide by the terms currently in effect.
- If I revise my policies and procedures, I will provide you with a revised notice by mail or in person and in writing within 7 days of such change in notice, if at all possible.

V. Complaints

If you are concerned that I have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision I made about access to your records, you may contact the Board of Behavioral Sciences, 400 R. Street, #3150, Sacramento, CA 95814-6240.

You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.D. 20201.

VI. Effective Date, Restrictions, and Changes to Privacy Policy

Notice of any future restriction to this notice or of change will be posted promptly within 14 days of such change.

This notice goes into effect on April 14, 2003.
